Adult Transgender Therapy Group

At Heart & Soul Counseling Center, we offer a safe, supportive space for transgender individuals to come together, share experiences, and receive guidance. Whether you're navigating transition, exploring identity, or seeking connection with others, our group is here to provide a compassionate environment.

What We Offer:

Group therapy led by licensed professionals experienced in gender identity and LGBTQ+ issues.

A space to express your feelings, share experiences, and receive support from others who understand.

Tools for coping with challenges, building resilience, and strengthening your mental health.

A safe, judgment-free zone for all participants regardless of where you are in your journey.
